Principal's Message

Dear Friends,

This week we celebrate All Saints Day, a Holy Day of Obligation, and our children will go trick-or-treating for Halloween. It is a busy time, and this will be launching us into an even busier season. I thank you for taking the time to read this newsletter to stay abreast of what all is happening here at Holy Spirit.

This week there will be no home work on Thursday evening for any grade so as to provide every family with the opportunity to be together and enjoy the festivities of the city.

Grandparents day RSVPs are available online under Student Life – School Events, and a copy is below. Please fill these out and return them no later than November 6th to the front office or to cjodon@hstigers.org. This is a great day for grandparents to come and experience the love that we have for them.

We had a fantastic turnout for the Family Day of Service last Saturday! A huge thank you to all of those that donated their time and energy for this effort. The campus looks amazing!

Blessings,

Vince Aquila
Principal

It's Red Ribbon Week!

Red Ribbon Week is well underway! Monday we launched the week by signing the Drug Free Board outside of the Guidance Office. Tuesday we all wore red to show solidarity in the cause. Today is keeping drugs in the past by wearing throwbacks from the 70s, 80s, and 90s. Tomorrow is Crazy Sock Day, so bust out the craziest socks to rock tomorrow! Friday we will have a visit from the Huntsville K-9 unit. Let's keep spreading the word and driving the cause!
